SUMMARY:

I am programmer/coder living in Skopje, Republic of North Macedonia. I've learned how to code through hard work and dedication;

This year I completed a course for Python Development at the Institute of Computer Education - ICE Malta and obtained the respective certificate;

Through a lot of persistence and discipline, I've acquired good skills in HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, jQuery;

At the moment I am working on improving my Javascript skills, using a paid online Bootcamp and sources known as Udemy, Pluralsight, Free code camp, Stack Overflow and other online resources.

I also have some basic skills in design and design concepts with design programs such as Adobe Photoshop.

I am highly motivated and a fast learner, have a great passion for web development and design. Always interested in new technologies and new ways to upgrade and improve myself.
